STUDENT EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES REGULAR COMPETITION

Tłıchǫ Government's Hotiì ts'eeda / NWT SPOR
SUPPORT Unit invites all suitable qualified candidates to apply for

STUDENT POSITIONS

for the Summer of 2020

Tłıchǫ Government is committed to attracting and recruiting the best possible candidates for available positions. The principles of fairness, qualifications and Tłıchǫ citizenship guide the hiring of Tłıchǫ Government employees.

Hotiì ts'eeda is a research support centre for community members, organizations and researchers involved in Northwest Territories health and health research.

Hotiì ts'eeda's vision is to support health research and training that is rooted in Dǫne Nàowo, Inuvialuit and Métis knowledge and responds to the needs of patients, communities and governments. The organization exists to revitalize and celebrate culture, improve capacity for individuals and families and support taking an evidence-based approach to policy. It is about moving control and ownership of research back to Indigenous peoples and communities.

Hotiì ts'eeda's students are valued members of our team and should be:

- enrolled in a post-secondary degree, preferably in a field related to health, public health, research, Indigenous languages or Indigenous governance
- available for full-time work during the summer from April/May to August
- ability to speak an Indigenous language is an asset

Students working with Hotiì ts'eeda will be paid $30/hour and these positions can be located in any NWT community.
